1962 Selection of

DAYLILIES

1962 BOSTON DAYLILY CONVENTION

We welcome you to visit our garden on the way to the Boston Daylily Convention. We have many outstanding things to show you, from near whites, lavenders, pinks, melons, yellows and the tangerines with the vivid, glowing tangerine throats. We have many of the best of Fay's, Hall's, Childs' and Lester's. All of their latest were planted last year.

Another garden to visit while on Long Island is the Martin Viette Nurseries on Route 25A, East Norwich, L. I., about ten miles from our nursery. Here you will meet Andre Viette who started breeding Daylilies a few years ago and has thousands of Daylilies, right up to the newest Satin Glass.

1962 Introductions

- CRIMSON CUSHION (P. J. Fass) Whorl of Gold X Bess Ross. A crimson red with darker red shadings. Many flowers and blooms over a long period. 34 in. Midseason-on. $15.00
- ELEGANT BOUQUET (P. J. Fass) Maple Cream X Tootie. Maple cream is Jersey Cream X Atlas. A fine, smooth textured pink-melon. So many flowers over a long period, looks like a bouquet every day. Tops in branching. 26 in. Midseason. $25.00
- POLAR BEAR (P. J. Fass) Sleigh Bells X Atlas. A low, large, light yellow with many blooms. Very good breeder for shortness, large flowers and heavy substance. 24 in. Midseason. $10.00
- FLOATING WALTZ (P. J. Fass) Mission Bells X Atlas. Extra large, ruffled blooms with a fine flare. The large, light yellow flowers are borne on sturdy well branched scapes. 36 in. Midseason. $25.00
- INLAID GOLD (P. J. Fass) Full Swing X 56-8-3. 56-8-3 is Goldensong X Whorl of Gold. A rich, deep gold with darker gold shadings. Flowers are large on well branched scapes. 26 in. Midseason. I had never liked the buffy toned yellows of the past. I set out to breed for good clean, clear yellows. My first break came with 56-8-3. The size and color I wanted. These flowers looked down too much. Then came the break with Full Swing and combining these two, I came up with Inlaid Gold. This year I will have seedlings of Inlaid Gold X Full Swing to bloom. All the brothers and sisters will be crossed to come up with the finest deep golden yellow. $25.00
